Take a day trip back to that momentous day!

Planning began in the aftermath of that terrifying day and was completed just over 12 years later, as New York and the nation showed defiance in the face of terrorism. The September 11 Museum was opened to the public on May 21, 2014, with over 23,000 images, 10,300 artifacts, nearly 2,000 oral histories about those killed, over 500 hours of video, first-responder vehicles, pieces of steel, part of the original foundation of the Towers, and more. From the symbolic architecture to the tranquil memorial pools, the nation and the world are invited to re-experience 9/11 in a most meaningful way. Take your time as you wander through the museum. Lunch and snacks are on your own in the Café.
